

I'm against this proposal for the simple reason that I wish to establish AND MAINTAIN the privacy of my communications. The government could maybe try remembering the Bill of Rights, and respecting them?